

C.L.A.W GLOBAL
OPERATION BLUE FREEDOM – WATER WORLD RECORD AT MALDIVES

INDIA TRAINING CAMPAIGN

True Freedom is a collective experience. Either we all have it or none of us do

BACKGROUND

1. Conquer Land Air Water Global Adventures, LLP, set up by ex-special forces of Indian Army & Navy, is a limited liability partnership registered in India (“C.L.A.W GLOBAL”).
2. The details of Operation Blue Freedom envisioned by C.L.A.W GLOBAL has already been shared separately. C.L.A.W GLOBAL and Maldives Integrated Tourism Development Corporation (100% owned by Maldivian Government) has already entered into memorandum of understanding in connection with the Water World Record at Maldives (“Water World Record”).
3. The Water World Record leg of Operation Blue Freedom will be held at Maldives from March 2021 onwards, and the contingent will, inter alia, include 50 persons with disabilities (PWDs) from across the globe.
4. The training of likely participants shall be held at respective countries such as India, Maldives, Iran, Kuwait, South Africa, Kenya, Mexico, U.S.A., UK and Canada (“Global Training”).
5. The training of Indian participants shall be held at Puducherry/Auroville (“India Training”) from January 2, 2021.
6. C.L.A.W GLOBAL and Handicapped Scuba Association, USA shall co-ordinate the Global Training including Indian Training.
7. Out of all the trainee participants in Global Training (including India Training), C.L.A.W GLOBAL shall shortlist and finalize the participants (including Indian participants) who shall form part of the PWDs contingent for Water World Record.

OPPORTUNITY FOR INDIAN ENTITIES

1. India has one of the largest population of PWDs.
2. The capability and energy of PWDs which can phenomenally boost the global consciousness including transferring new spirit and capabilities to able bodied still remains untapped or rather undermined.
3. During times of COVID-19, Water World Record under the guidance of ex-special forces of Indian Army & Navy demonstrates India's capabilities and will to demonstrate the path ahead and break the atmosphere of uncertainty gripping the entire world.
4. Synergy with the Indian entities will further display willingness of Indian entities to participate in defining events which re-shape the global outlook.
5. As a mark of respect, Indian entities willing to back the highly motivated PWDs participating in India Training, C.L.A.W Global shall suitably display the name of such Indian entity in: (a) interview of PWD (backed by such relevant Indian entity) conducted at the end of India Training campaign; and (b) group photo to be clicked at the end of training for each batch of India Training campaign.
6. The compliance related formalities, payment process and other operational details shall be shared with the respective Indian entities upon receipt of in-principal commitment to back the PWDs in the India Training campaign.
7. For further details, interested Indian entities may contact: Major Arun Prakash Ambathy (Veteran) at contact@claw.global / Mobile & Whatsapp - +91 9500 183 706 .

DISCLAIMER

This is non-binding invitation to offer subject to laws of India. C.L.A.W GLOBAL reserves the sole discretion to change the nature and scope of Operation Blue Freedom, Water World Record at Maldives and Global Training (including India Training).
